

COLORED WEDDING.

Pansy Denkins and Samuel Bacon were married last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of the bride's stepfather, Rev. R. B. Brooks, in this city.

Rev. W. G. Stewart, pastor of Mount Zion A. M. E. Church, officiated.

A large crowd was present, and did ample justice to the good things provided for the marriage supper.

Thankful for Trials.

Having once become possessed of spiritual life, we get abundant opportunities of testing the faithfulness of God. Every promise in God's word becomes an opportunity of showing the power, the immutability, the love, the faithfulness and the gentleness of God. But let us be very careful ever to verify experience. You who always prosper and enjoy good health, be thankful for it, and for all the little round of promises which will fall to your lot. You who are suffering persons, and are often sick, and so frequently to the grave; you who are slandered, on whose lives are a daily battle, thank God for that enlarged range of promises which you can now test and try. You cannot see the stars now, but if you were to go down to the bottom of a well at high noon, you could see the stars. God sometimes takes us down into the depths of affliction, that we may see his promises. Many of the promises are written in sympathetic ink—a kind of ink which leaves no mark on the paper till you hold it to the fire; then the black lines stand out. There is much of God's word which must be held to the fire of some fierce and trying affliction. * * * You must be cast upon a certain island ere you can shake off the beasts into the fire. Or you must be banished to another certain island ere you can be "in the spirit on the Lord's day," and hear behind you the voice of the trumpet, and see the majestic figure at whose feet you shall fall as dead. I say, be thankful for trials, when they come.

SILVER AND GOLD;

Or, Both Sides of the Shield.

The great interest manifested about the Coin question will be satisfied by obtaining and reading that wonderful book, "Silver and Gold; or, Both Sides of the Shield," being a symposium of the views of all parties on the currency question, as expressed by their leading advocates, viz: Sherman, Carlisle, Stewart, Bryan, Allison, Harvey, J. Lawrence Laughlin, Sibley, Tillman, George Vest, St. John, Cleveland, Eckles, and many others. Edited by Trumble White, with thirty-two portraits of eminent authors, statesmen, and economists. Just out from the great International Publishing Co., of Chicago, Ill. Sold only by subscription. 600 pages.
